DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant is reminded that "use" claims are non-statutory and are not appropriate for US practice (see MPEP 2173.05(q)).

For examination purposes "use" claims are interpreted as methods of using.

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

3. In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in response to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

- I. Claims 1-3 and 7-9, drawn to a method for the manufacture of medicaments comprising an endothelin blocker in combination with an $\alpha v \beta 3$ integrin receptor antagonist.
- II. Claims 4-6 and 10, drawn to a pharmaceutical composition comprising an endothelin blocker and an $\alpha v \beta 3$ integrin receptor antagonist.
- III. Claim 10, drawn to a package comprising a pharmaceutical composition comprising an endothelin blocker.
- IV. Claim 10, drawn to a package comprising a pharmaceutical composition comprising an $\alpha v \beta 3$ integrin receptor antagonist.

4. The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

The invention of Group III was found to have no special technical feature that defined the contribution over the prior art of US Pat. No. 5,934,272) (see entire document).

The '272 patent teaches package comprising endothelin antagonist and anti-adhesion molecules, (see patented claims 5). It is noted that the written material in the instructions is not considered to be within the statutory classes and does not carry patentable weight. See MPEP 706.03(a). Also, see In re Haller 73 USPQ 403 (CCPA 1947), where application of printed matter to old article cannot render article patentable and In re Venezia 189 USPQ 49 (CCPA 1976), where kits are drawn to the structural attributes of interrelated component parts and not to activities that may or may not occur. If the prior art structure is capable of performing the intended use, then it meets the claim. In a claim drawn to a process of making, the intended use must result in a manipulative difference as compared to the prior art. In re Casey, 152 USPQ 235 (CCPA 1967); In re Otto, 136 USPQ 458, 459 (CCPA 1963). The term "comprising" is open-ended. It would open up the package to contain other material.

Since Applicant's inventions do not contribute a special technical feature when viewed over the prior art they do not have a single general inventive concept and so lack unity of invention.

5. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Maher Haddad whose telephone number is (571) 272-0845.
